Derry, NH, May 15, 2014 - The Upper Room, A Family Resource Center (TUR) is participating in The Goddard School's Fifth Annual Family Fun Expo. Held on Sunday, May 18, the event connects organizations with the population they serve, and provides information for families. Over 40 vendors will be in attendance so families can learn about upcoming events and services available to them.

TUR will be showcasing both its Cooking Matters course – a free class held over the summer that teaches parents how to cook healthy and nutritious meals, and its parenting education series. General information on all The Upper Room's programs will also be available, including the Adolescent Wellness Program, Community Service Learning Opportunities (CSLO), and room rental services.

TUR is the charity of choice for the event, as The Goddard School will generously pass along all donations made by exhibitors and attendees to The Upper Room.

“The Family Fun Expo will be a great way for Derry families to discover fun and inexpensive ways to entertain and educate their children as summer approaches,” comment Angelica Ladd, Marketing Specialist for The Upper Room. “We invite families with children of all ages to attend.”

The event will be held on Sunday, May 18, 2014 from 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM at The Goddard School – 12 Tsienneto Road, Derry, NH, 03038. For more information, call The Goddard School at (603) 432-2210, or The Upper Room at (603) 437-8477.
